First assembly
2015

A group of young children, mostly girls, are standing in a hallway. They are wearing winter coats and hats, including Santa hats. The hallway is decorated with Christmas-themed artwork, including a large display of drawings of reindeer or similar animals. The children are smiling and looking towards the camera. The hallway has a blue carpet on the left and a yellow carpet on the right. There are windows and doors in the background.

Thank you to all the teachers for helping us through the years in anything we need and for helping prepare this day for us especially Ms.Dempsey and Mrs.Breen.

Thank you to the parents council and all the parents for helping organise this event and many others that we have had.

Thank you to kak she has always been there to help with teas and coffee etc. And for always being there for us and listening to us rant on.

From,
